PROJECT within the framework of the ERASMUS+ KA2
Programme Duration: 01.09.2014 - 31.08.2016

Aurel Vlaicu University of Arad is honoured to invite you to attend to the International Conference on Vocational Counselling, to be held in Arad (Romania), during June 22-24, 2016. It is a great pleasure for us to host this event, fully funded by ERASMUS+, under the project “What really matters” ID: 2014-1-RO01-KA202-002863.

This Conference targets specialists in the field of career counselling, training the trainers and youth work, as well as other relevant professional figures involved in offering career counselling services, teachers, professors and educators.

This conference will gather experience of project team, collaborators, stakeholders, researchers and participants in sharing best practices and finding in the field of youth employment challenges. We are welcoming theoretical frameworks, field researches and state of the art practices that target the field of youth career counselling strategies.

Papers will be peer-reviewed by a Scientific Board. Upon acceptance, papers will be online published in:

1. Brochure of best practices and finding in the field of youth employment challenges www.wrmcloud.eu,
2. BDI indexed Journal AGORA <http://www.uav.ro/en/journals/agora>,
3. BDI indexed Journal PLUS EDUCATION <http://www.uav.ro/en/journals/educatia-plus>.

Deadline for submitting your articles: 30 April 2016
